

KEITH ANDERSON/THE DAILY NEWS

THOMPSON NICOLA Cariboo United Way chairman Tony Ryan, middle, presents awards to United Steel Workers Local 7619 recording secretary Jim McLean, left, and grievance chairman Jim McCarthy. The Workplace Team of the Year Spirit Award was part of Tuesday's United Way Spirit Awards luncheon at the Terrace Room at Thompson Rivers University. McLean and McCarthy work at Highland Valley Copper.

In a united spirit of community building

Community spirit was celebrated at a United Way luncheon Tuesday.

Seven organizations and individuals were recognized for helping build strong communities through "outstanding generosity and support."

They are:

Community Partner — Kamloops United Church — PIT Stop
Outstanding Volunteer —

Mary Strandt, BCLC

Community Spirit Large Organization — CEP 10-B (Domtar)

Community Spirit Small Organization — Service Canada
Youth Inspired — Future Shop

Workplace Team — USW 7619 (Highland Valley Copper)

Local Business Community Spirit — Northern Trailer