

Inviting all Youth, Youth
Advocates, Allies and Service Providers

Say What!?

Artistic and Recreation Expressions for Youth Health in Kamloops

A free conference on Youth Health in Kamloops and Surrounding Rural Communities

Date: Monday, May 4th
Time: 3:30-9:30 pm (Doors open at 3:00)
Location: Tournament Capital Centre

With Keynote Speaker Melanie Mark

Child and youth advocacy from the ground up!

Melanie Mark will speak to her journey of becoming a child and youth advocate and the importance of community engagement.

Melanie Mark is from the Nisga'a Nation. She is the recipient of the 2006 YWCA Vancouver Young Woman of Distinction Award.

Come and Express Yourself with the Youth in our Community:

- Film Festival
- Animation Workshop
- Art Workshop
- Live Music
- Food and Conversation
- Soccer and Basketball

For more information or to register please RSVP to:

Natalie Clark (nclark@tru.ca)

Centre for Community-Based Youth Health Research

Or

Debbie Swain (dswain@kamloops.ca)

Funded By:

Canada's Tournament Capital

Centre for Community-Based
Youth Health
Research

THOMPSON RIVERS  UNIVERSITY